

CELEBRATING THOMAS HARDY

A CONCERT OF VILLAGE MUSIC FROM THE 18TH & 19TH CENTURIES

photo - William Bickers-Jones

performed
by
The Madding
Crowd

7.30pm Saturday 27th April 2019

St John the Baptist
C of E Church Winchester
St. Johns Street SO23 0HF

Winchester's oldest parish church dating from 1193, with many interesting features including Saxon wall paintings

Tickets £12 from David Stirrup: email dw.stirrup@btinternet.com
phone 02380 262400 or 07889 853661 or buy them on the door

Thomas Hardy's grandfather led one of the many bands and choirs who played and sang for church services and village dances throughout England in Georgian times. His collection of psalm tunes and dances can be found in the Dorset County Archives. Enjoy a rare opportunity to hear the music referred to in Hardy's books, with readings from contemporary sources to bring to life the social history of the time.

www.maddingcrowd.org

CELEBRATING THOMAS HARDY

A CONCERT OF VILLAGE MUSIC FROM THE 18TH & 19TH CENTURIES

photo - William Bickers-Jones

performed
by
The Madding
Crowd

7.30pm Saturday 27th April 2019

St John the Baptist
C of E Church Winchester
St. Johns Street SO23 0HF

Winchester's oldest parish church dating from 1193, with many interesting features including Saxon wall paintings

Tickets £12 from David Stirrup: email dw.stirrup@btinternet.com
phone 02380 262400 or 07889 853661 or buy them on the door

Thomas Hardy's grandfather led one of the many bands and choirs who played and sang for church services and village dances throughout England in Georgian times. His collection of psalm tunes and dances can be found in the Dorset County Archives. Enjoy a rare opportunity to hear the music referred to in Hardy's books, with readings from contemporary sources to bring to life the social history of the time.

www.maddingcrowd.org