

Constitution of The West Gallery Music Association

Registered Charity number 1171664 ; a Charitable Incorporated Organisation with voting members other than its charity trustees.

Date of constitution (approved): Issue 3 (draft) awaiting adoption

1 Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation is The West Gallery Music Association (abbreviated herein and elsewhere as the WGMA).

2 National location of principal office

The principal office of The West Gallery Music Association is in England.

3 Objects

The objects of The West Gallery Music Association (WGMA) are:

The advancement of education and the promotion of the arts in particular by:

- (1) promoting, sustaining, and increasing individual and collective knowledge and understanding of, the sacred and secular music and song of Britain and its colonies, with particular reference to what has become known as West Gallery music, from its development following the restoration of the monarchy in 1660 through to its decline in the mid-nineteenth century and subsequent contemporary revival;
- (2) advancing the education of the public in the sacred and secular music and song of West Gallery and allied traditions and their social and historical context in Britain and its colonies; and
- (3) supporting and encouraging a revival of interest in West Gallery music both nationally and internationally.

WGMA will achieve these objects for the benefit of the public in general and without restriction with no political, religious or other persuasion.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorize an application of the property of the WGMA for purposes that are not charitable.

4 Powers

The WGMA has power to do anything that is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the WGMA's powers include power to:

- (1) Borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The WGMA must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- (2) Buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property, and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (3) Sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the WGMA. In exercising this power, the WGMA must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;
- (4) Employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the WGMA. The WGMA may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of that clause;

- (5) Deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the WGMA to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

5 Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the WGMA must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the WGMA or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the WGMA.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the WGMA's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of the WGMA may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the WGMA. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - (a) A benefit from the WGMA as a beneficiary of the WGMA;
 - (b) Reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the WGMA.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment that is authorized by Clause 6.

6 Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

- (1) General Provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may

- (a) Buy or receive any goods or services from the WGMA on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) Sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the WGMA;
- (c) Be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the WGMA;
- (d) Receive any other financial benefit from the WGMA;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorized by the court or the Charity Commission ("the Commission"). In this clause, a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, that is either money or has a monetary value.

- (2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits
 - (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the WGMA as a beneficiary of the WGMA provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
 - (b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the WGMA where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011

- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the WGMA with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the WGMA by the charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the WGMA at a reasonable and proper rate that must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the WGMA. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the WGMA on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The WGMA and its charity trustees may rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause only if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the WGMA and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the WGMA to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the WGMA.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorized by clause 6.

(4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) “the WGMA” includes any company in which the WGMA:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
- (b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause 30.

7 Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- (1) declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, that he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the WGMA or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the WGMA that has not previously been declared; and
- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the WGMA and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8 Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the WGMA if it is wound up

If the WGMA is wound up, the members of the WGMA have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9 Membership of the WGMA

- (1) Admission of new members

- (a) Eligibility

Membership of the WGMA is open to anyone who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his, her or its agreement to become a member and acceptance of the duty of members set out in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

A member may be an individual, a corporate body, or an individual or corporate body representing an organisation that is not incorporated.

- (b) Admission procedure

The charity trustees:

- (i) may require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;
 - (ii) shall, if they approve an application for membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
 - (iii) may refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interests of the WGMA for them to do so;
 - (iv) shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
 - (v) shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

- (2) Transfer of membership

Membership of the WGMA cannot be transferred to anyone else except in the case of an individual or corporate body representing an organisation that is not incorporated, whose membership may be transferred by the unincorporated organisation to a new representative. Such transfer of membership does not take effect until the WGMA has received written notification of the transfer.

(3) Duty of members

It is the duty of each member of the WGMA to exercise his or her powers as a member of the WGMA in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the WGMA.

(4) Termination of membership

(a) Membership of the WGMA comes to an end if:

- (i) the member dies, or, in the case of an organisation (or the representative of an organisation) that organisation ceases to exist; or
- (ii) the member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or
- (iii) any sum of money owed by the member to the WGMA is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
- (iv) the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the WGMA that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

(b) Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the WGMA they must:

- (i) inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
- (ii) give the member at least 21 clear days notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;
- (iii) at a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees, consider whether the member should be removed from membership;
- (iv) consider at that meeting any representations the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
- (v) allow the member, or the member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

(5) Membership fees

The WGMA may require members to pay reasonable membership fees to the WGMA.

(6) Informal or associate (non-voting) membership

- (a) The charity trustees may create associate or other classes of non-voting membership, and may determine the rights and obligations of any such members (including payment of membership fees), and the conditions for admission to, and termination of membership of any such class of members.
- (b) Other references in this constitution to "members" and "membership" do not apply to non-voting members, and non-voting members do not qualify as members for any purpose under the Charities Acts, General Regulations or Dissolution Regulations.

10 Members' decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (4) of this clause, decisions of the members of the WGMA may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

(2) Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, any decision of the members of the WGMA may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting, including votes cast by postal or email ballot and proxy votes.

(3) Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

- (a) Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:
 - (i) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
 - (ii) a simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents that are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature (or in the case of an organisation that is a member, by execution according to its usual procedure), by a statement of their identity accompanying the document, or in such other manner as the WGMA has specified.
- (b) The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members has signified their agreement.
- (c) Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of the WGMA on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with paragraph (a) above.
- (d) Not less than 10% of the members of the WGMA may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members.
- (e) The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:
 - (i) The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
 - (ii) The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and
 - (iii) Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.
- (f) Sub-clauses (a) to (c) of this clause apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of the WGMA as a CIO, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause 13.
- (b) Other general meetings of the members of the WGMA may be held at any time.
- (c) The charity trustees may decide to conduct any general meeting by electronic means and, if so, shall designate the meeting as such in the notice calling the meeting. A general meeting that has been so designated shall be referred to as an electronic general meeting.
- (d) Electronic general meetings need not be held at any particular place and may be held without any number of those participating in the meeting being together at the same place.
- (e) Electronic general meetings shall be conducted in accordance with rules prepared for that purpose under clause 26 (Rules) and agreed by the charity trustees. Such rules shall specify:
 - (i) any place at which a member may attend the meeting in person, or that there is no place at which a member may attend the meeting in person;
 - (ii) the electronic or other means by which the meeting will be held and the means by which a member may participate;
 - (iii) the electronic or other means by which votes may be cast at the meeting;
 - (iv) any other rules relevant to the conduct of electronic meetings.

All general meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

(2) Calling general meetings

- (a) The charity trustees:
 - (i) must call the annual general meeting of the members of the WGMA in accordance with sub-clause (1) of this clause, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
 - (ii) may call any other general meeting of the members at any time.
- (b) The charity trustees must, within 21 days, call a general meeting of the members of the WGMA if:
 - (i) they receive a request to do so from at least 10% of the members of the WGMA; and
 - (ii) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the member(s) making the request.
- (c) If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the members of the WGMA for more than 12 months, then sub-clause (b)(i) of this clause shall have effect as if 5% were substituted for 10%.

- (d) Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- (e) A resolution may properly be proposed only if it is lawful and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- (f) Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the members of the WGMA must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.
- (g) If the charity trustees fail to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its members, then the members who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
- (h) A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 3 months after the date when the members first requested the meeting.
- (i) The WGMA must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the WGMA shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

(3) Notice of general meetings

- (a) The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the WGMA, must give at least 14 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the members, and to any charity trustee of the WGMA who is not a member.
- (b) If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the WGMA, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause (3)(a) of this clause have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- (c) The notice of any general meeting must:
 - (i) state the time and date of the meeting;
 - (ii) give the address at which the meeting is to take place or, if it is to be an electronic meeting, the manner by which it will be conducted;
 - (iii) give particulars of any resolution that is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - (iv) if a proposal to alter the constitution of the WGMA is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration;
 - (v) include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the WGMA's website.
- (d) A notice may be served upon any member in person or by sending it:
 - (i) through the post as first-class mail in a pre-paid letter addressed to such member at his or her registered address. Any notice served by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the letter containing the same was posted and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that such letter was properly addressed and posted as a first-class pre-paid letter.

- (ii) to the member's registered email address. Any notice sent by email shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the email was sent and in proving such service a certificate signed by the secretary or any charity trustee confirming that the notice was sent to the registered email address shall be conclusive.

- (e) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the WGMA.

(4) Chairing of general meetings

The person nominated as chair by the charity trustees under clause 19(2) (Chairing of meetings), shall, if present at the general meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. Subject to that, the members of the WGMA who are present at a general meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.

(5) Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the WGMA unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
- (b) Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be the greater of 5% or three members. An organisation represented by a person present at the meeting in accordance with sub-clause (7) of this clause, is counted as being present in person.
- (c) If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the members and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.
- (d) If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the WGMA's members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.
- (e) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- (f) If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required that must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.
- (g) A member's registered proxy shall present at an electronic AGM if participating according to the prevailing rules and in the manner specified in the notice calling the meeting.

(6) Voting at general meetings

- (a) Any decision other than one falling within clause 10(4) (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes). Every member has one vote unless otherwise provided in the rights of a particular class of membership under this constitution.
- (b) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands or, in the case of an electronic meeting, by such method as is specified in the rules governing that meeting, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the registered representatives present in person or by proxy at the meeting.
- (c) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for the poll.

- (d) A poll may be taken:
 - (i) at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - (ii) at some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - (iii) through the use of postal or electronic communications.
- (e) In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a second, or casting vote.
- (f) Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.
- (g) A show of hands shall include any other method of voting on a show of hands specified in the notice convening the meeting at which the vote is taken, and any vote cast by that method shall be counted in determining the result of the show of hands.
- (h) The accidental omission to count any vote on a show of hands shall not invalidate the result of the proceedings.

(7) Proxy voting

- (a) Any member of the WGMA may appoint another person as a proxy to exercise all or any of that member's rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the WGMA. Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") that:
 - (i) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - (ii) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (iii) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the WGMA may determine; and
 - (iv) is delivered to the WGMA in accordance with the constitution and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- (b) The WGMA may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- (c) Proxy notices may (but do not have to) specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- (d) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - (i) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (ii) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- (e) A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the WGMA by or on behalf of that member. Attendance by a member in person invalidates any previously submitted proxy notice and must be declared to the chair before the meeting commences.

- (f) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the WGMA a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
 - (g) A notice revoking a proxy appointment takes effect only if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
 - (h) If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the member appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that member's behalf had authority to do so.
- (8) Postal and Electronic Voting
- (a) The WGMA may, if the charity trustees so decide, allow the members to vote by post or electronic mail (e-mail) to elect charity trustees or to make a decision on any matter that is being decided at a general meeting of the members.
 - (b) The charity trustees must appoint at least two persons independent of the WGMA to serve as scrutineers to supervise the conduct of the postal/e-mail ballot and the counting of votes.
 - (c) If postal and/or e-mail voting is to be allowed on a matter, the WGMA must send to members of the WGMA not less than 21 days before the deadline for receipt of votes cast in this way:
 - (i) a notice by e-mail, if the member has agreed to receive notices in this way under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), including an explanation of the purpose of the vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member, and a voting form capable of being returned by e-mail or post to the WGMA, containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable;
 - (ii) a notice by post to all other members, including a written explanation of the purpose of the postal vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member; and a postal voting form containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable.
 - (d) The voting procedure must require all forms returned by post to be in an envelope with the member's name and signature, and nothing else, on the outside, inside another envelope addressed to 'The Scrutineers for the WGMA', at the WGMA's principal office or such other postal address as is specified in the voting procedure.
 - (e) The voting procedure for votes cast by e-mail must require the member's name to be at the top of the e-mail, and the e-mail must be authenticated in the manner specified in the voting procedure.
 - (f) E-mail votes must be returned to an e-mail address used only for this purpose and must be accessed only by a scrutineer.
 - (g) The voting procedure must specify the closing date and time for receipt of votes, and must state that any votes received after the closing date or not complying with the voting procedure will be invalid and not be counted.
 - (h) The scrutineers must make a list of names of members casting valid votes, and a separate list of members casting votes that were invalid. These lists must be provided to a charity trustee or other person overseeing admission to, and voting at, the general meeting. A member who has cast a valid postal or e-mail vote must not vote at the meeting, and must not be counted in the quorum for any part of the meeting on which he, she or it has already cast a valid vote. A member who has cast an invalid vote by post or e-mail is allowed to vote at the meeting and counts towards the quorum.
 - (i) For postal votes, the scrutineers must retain the internal envelopes (with the member's name and signature). For e-mail votes, the scrutineers must cut off and retain any part of the e-mail that includes the member's name. In each case, a scrutineer must record on this evidence of the member's name that the vote has been counted, or if the vote has been declared invalid, the reason for such declaration.

- (j) Votes cast by post or e-mail must be counted by all the scrutineers before the meeting at which the vote is to be taken. The scrutineers must provide to the person chairing the meeting written confirmation of the number of valid votes received by post and e-mail and the number of votes received that were invalid.
- (k) The scrutineers must not disclose the result of the postal/e-mail ballot until after votes taken by hand or by poll at the meeting, or by poll after the meeting, have been counted. Only at this point shall the scrutineers declare the result of the valid votes received, and these votes shall be included in the declaration of the result of the vote.
- (l) Following the final declaration of the result of the vote, the scrutineers must provide to a charity trustee or other authorized person bundles containing the evidence of members submitting valid postal votes; evidence of members submitting valid e-mail votes; evidence of invalid votes; the valid votes; and the invalid votes.
- (m) Any dispute about the conduct of a postal or e-mail ballot must be referred initially to a panel set up by the charity trustees, to consist of two trustees and two persons independent of the WGMA. If the dispute cannot be satisfactorily resolved by the panel, it must be referred to the Electoral Reform Services.

(9) Representation of organisations and corporate members

An organisation or a corporate body that is a member of the WGMA may, in accordance with its usual decision-making process, authorize a person to act as its representative at any general meeting of the WGMA. The representative is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the organisation or corporate body as the organisation or corporate body could exercise as an individual member of the WGMA.

(10) Adjournment of meetings

The chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business that could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

12 Charity trustees

(1) Functions and duties of charity trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the WGMA and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the WGMA. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

- (a) to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions as a trustee of the WGMA in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the WGMA; and
- (b) to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:
 - (i) any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having; and
